

How we've made a positive impact
in our community
over the past 12 months.

Inspiring change
through creativity.

17

good causes supported.

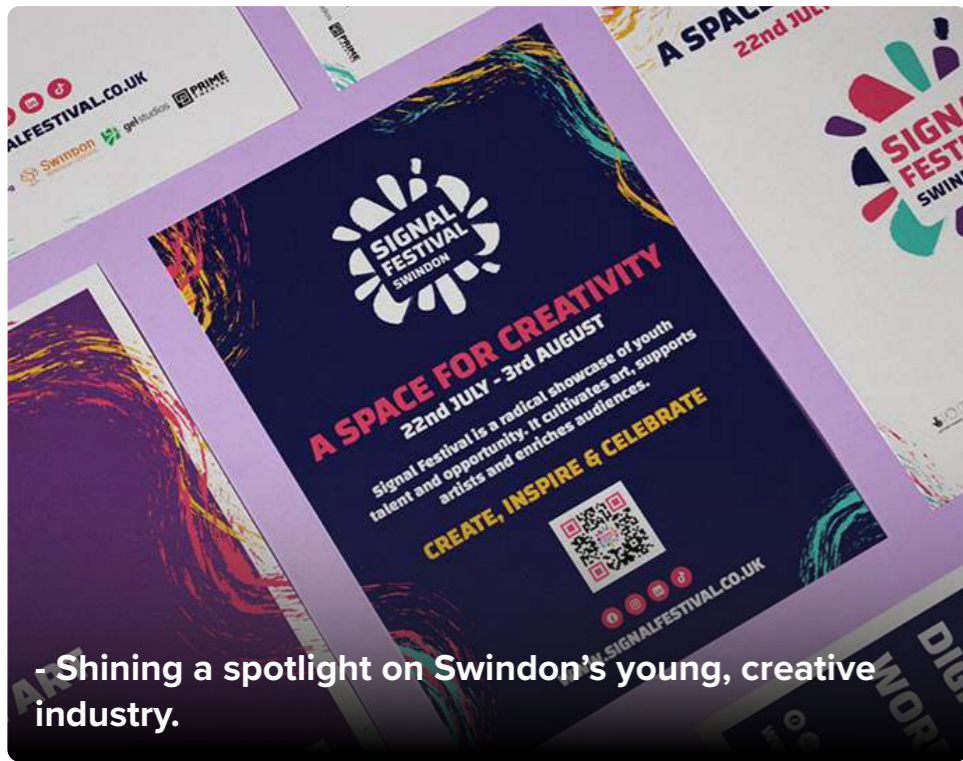

1,091

hours donated to good causes.

£132,970

donated in resource.

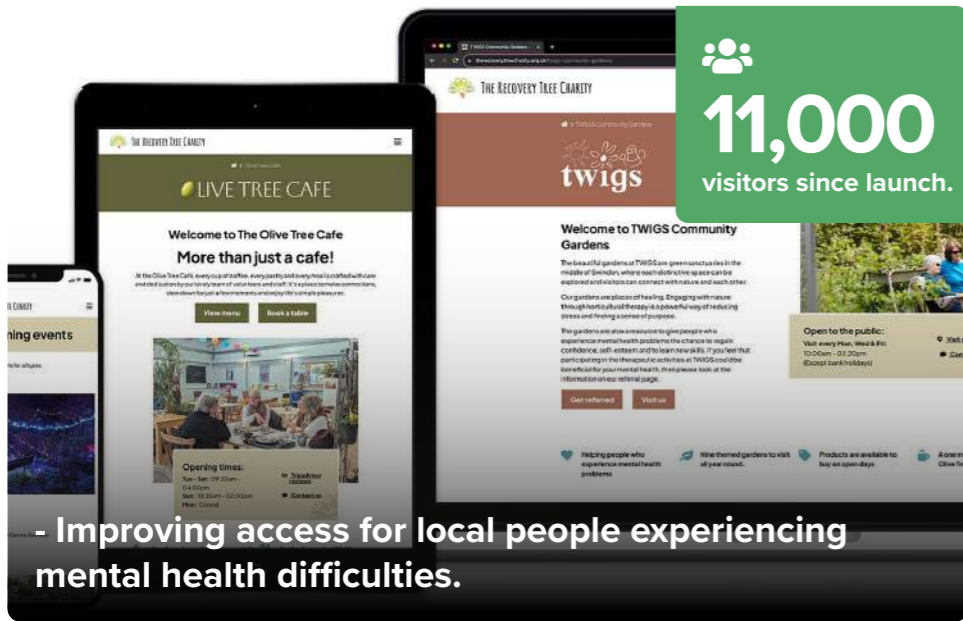

- Shining a spotlight on Swindon's young, creative industry.

- An identity for Swindon's new museum with meaning and purpose.

- Bringing creativity and life to Swindon Town Centre.

- Improving access for local people experiencing mental health difficulties.

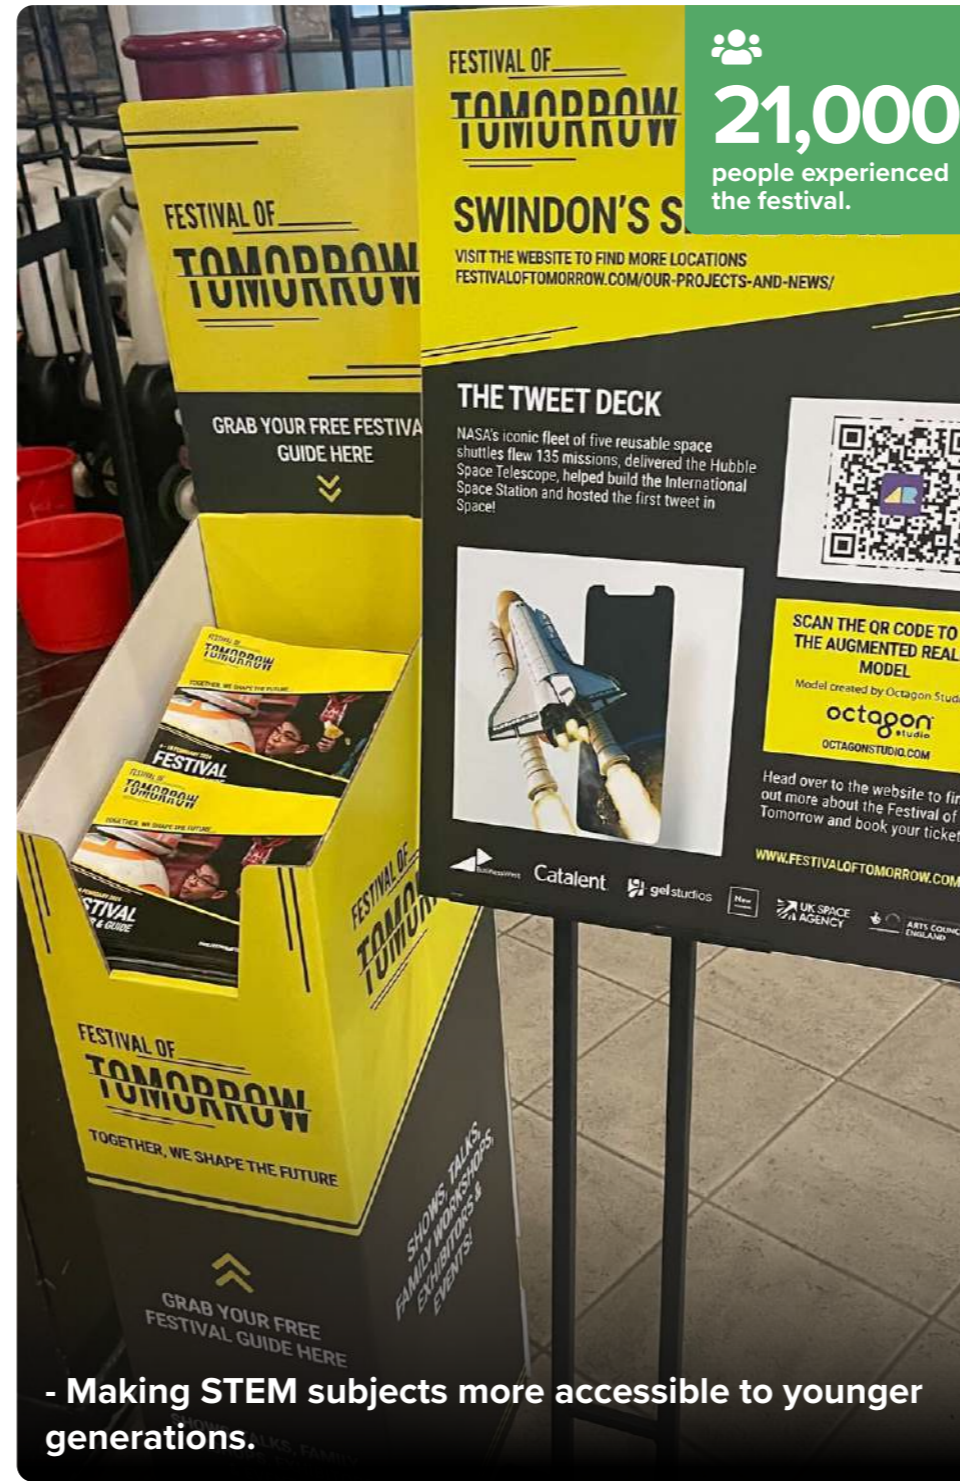

- Part of a global community of businesses that meet high social and environmental impact standards.

100
 vulnerable locals celebrated Christmas.

- Providing hot meals and shelter on Christmas Day.

FESTIVAL OF TOMORROW
21,000
 people experienced the festival.

- Making STEM subjects more accessible to younger generations.

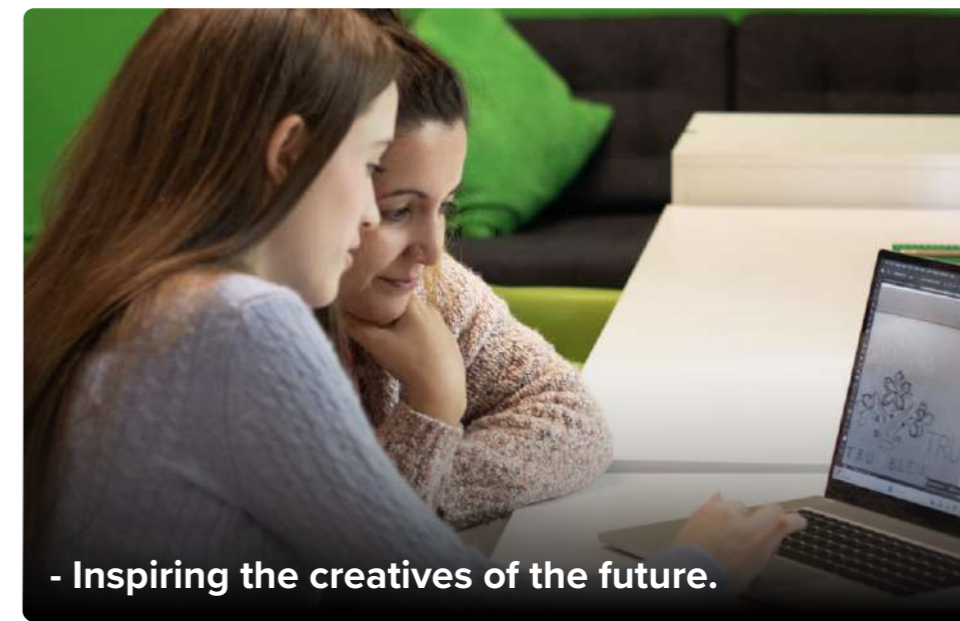

- Improving emotional culture in the workplace.

29
 grant applications
 since launch.

- Providing a platform for young people to access sports funding.

- Inspiring the creatives of the future.

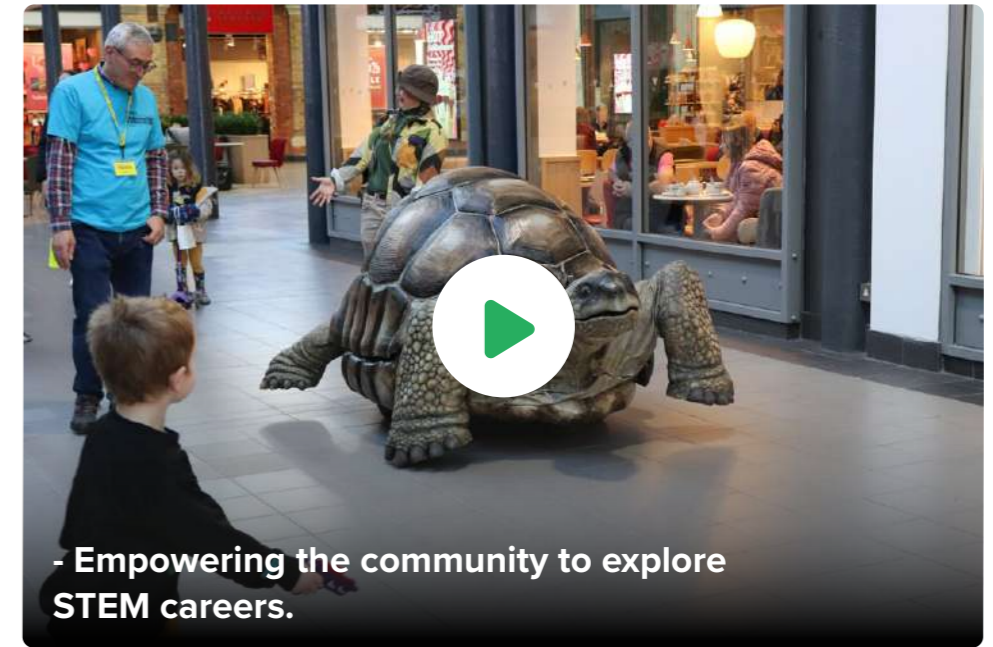

- Inspiring the next generation with work experience placements.

- Funding future athletes to further their Martial Arts dreams.

- Raising money for Men's Health issues.

- Empowering the community to explore STEM careers.

A few words from the good causes we've supported.

“

“This will open up many new opportunities for us as a small charity, providing an engaging platform through which we can increase awareness of foster care in the UK.”

Katie Hall, Trustee and Co-Chair of Comfort U Bags.

”

“

“This type of support is invaluable for a charity like Willows and will be fundamental in raising our profile within the community, enabling us to reach people who are struggling with their mental health.”

Denise Brent & Amanda Cook, Co-CEOs of Willows Counselling Service.

”

“

“With GELs creative input, it will help us reach more visually impaired people, as well as more volunteers to ensure its future.”

Jacqueline Ann Wray, Volunteer Secretary of Swindon & District Talking Newspaper Association (STAN).

”

“

“This is an important moment for us: the new website is the first element in our communications plan which will connect us more strongly to the community we serve.”

Dick Millard, Chair of Trustees of The Recovery Tree Charity.

”